FOREMAN TRAINING

Building a Solid Foundation

There are several versions of the Foreman Training program available this year: Interior Systems and concrete. The program is for UBC members who have worked as a foreman for a minimum of nine months, are currently working and have contractor approval and buy-in to attend. This class is ideal for contractors whose foremen oversee a project or crew. This four-day skill-building program examines the leadership role of the foreman as a planner, communicator, production manager, crew supervisor, and problem solver. During the program, participants will look at the major responsibilities of a foreman in relation to the three phases of a job: pre-job/job start-up; peak construction; and project close-out. The training is highly interactive with real job applications and classroom skill practice. Tips, tools and techniques are discussed throughout the program.

The foremen who are selected to attend will arrive in Las Vegas mid-morning Sunday and return home late afternoon Thursday or Friday. Hourly wages and benefits for that week shall be provided by each participant's employer.

DELEGATE TRAINING PROGRAM

Building a Better, Stronger Union

A Regional Council delegate is a leader and a role model. "Attending this Delegate Training Program is a great opportunity for delegates to increase their understanding of the Brotherhood and gain insight into Regional Council leadership," said NCSRCC Executive Director Pat Nilsen. Delegates will learn the value they bring and the important role they play in the UBC's mission. This program builds skills that help delegates educate, motivate, and inspire their fellow members.

The Delegate Training Program:

- Develops an understanding of a delegate's role and the value they bring to the Brotherhood.
- Increases understanding of what the Brotherhood is doing and why, so that delegates can successfully convey this message to the members they represent.
- Develops skills for effectively communicating with fellow members about issues important to them and to the Brotherhood.
- Strengthens relationships with other delegates from their Council and other areas.
